GOTV the FINAL PUSH

One month. One month until election day. This is the FINAL PUSH. Are you tired? Me too. But as Gov. Tim Walz says, “We can rest when we’re dead.” I like what Vice President Harris says, “When we fight, we win!” So, let us fight negativity, fight discouragement, fight fatigue, and fight disagreements. We will fight the negatives with joy, encouragement, hope, and faith.

Our Community Meeting

On October 28th at 6:30, Mayor Cosby Johnson will be our featured speaker for our community meeting. Cosby became Brunswick’s second African American to hold the title of Mayor in the City of Brunswick.

Mayor Johnson is the son of our own Dr. Regina Johnson, district four co-chair, and a veteran who taught him the importance of serving the community. Mayor Johnson represents the voice of the people and is enthusiastic about being a good steward.

Mayor Johnson is a graduate of Brunswick High School and Valdosta State University. He is Vice President for Government Affairs in the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and was influential in lobbying the Georgia Legislature to pass a hate crimes bill and repeal the state's citizen's arrest law. Mayor Johnson’s priorities are government accountability, transparency, economic development, and education.

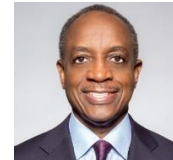

We are looking forward to Cosby giving us that last enthusiastic push to finish the job of electing Vice President Harris as Madam President of the United States of America.

An Event for Our Fundraiser Supporters!

Bakari Sellers, CNN commentator and former South Carolina State Representative, informed us before the dinner that he was going to be unable to appear in person at our Dine and Dance Dinner. He has generously offered a different direction. Bakari will provide a video from him, send Michael Thurman, CEO of DeKalb County and former Georgia State Representative, and a surprise celebrity guest! Fundraiser ticket holders please check your email for the upcoming announcement.
